

Medcol – AI-driven clinical assistant

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to recommend Anatolii Sydorenko, who successfully completed his internship with our company from October 9, 2023, to December 18, 2023. During this period, he demonstrated not only strong communication skills but also a passion for knowledge, making him a valuable professional in the field he aspires to develop.

Anatolii was an active participant in our team, responsible for the Front-End part of the project. He showed initiative in communication and demonstrated the ability to easily integrate into the workflow. He effortlessly found common ground with colleagues and contributed to the team's collective atmosphere.

Throughout the internship, Anatolii exhibited a high passion for learning and a commitment to professional growth, successfully enhancing his skills in TypeScript, 2D vector graphics, React+Redux.

Additionally, Anatolii successfully completed the Medical Atlas project, joining from its launch until the delivery of the internal MVP. He showcased a high level of professionalism, responsibility, and the ability to efficiently solve tasks.

Overall, I am confident that Anatolii will continue to demonstrate outstanding results in his professional career. I highly recommend him as a candidate with excellent communication skills, a thirst for knowledge, and a successful track record of participating in the full project lifecycle.

Best regards,
Anatolii Myreev
Chief Business Development Officer
